Local Chatswood based publisher, MirrorDance Books, takes on the multinationals with the second volume in the critically acclaimed Year's Best Australian SF & Fantasy series!

“Year’s Best volumes are usually the territory of publishers such as Harper Collins, or St Martins Press in New York, but independent publishers are entering this market niche around the world,” says editor and publisher, Bill Congreve. “And this year we’ve got internationally acclaimed authors like Greg Egan, Jack Dann, Lucy Sussex, Simon Brown and Stephen Dedman with stories in the book.”

“There’s been an explosion in science fiction writing in Australia since. More writers, more stories, a higher standard and greater international recognition than ever before. With the Year’s Best series we’re bringing the best of the small press – and the best of the stories published overseas – to a wider audience in Australia.” says Congreve.

The Year’s Best Australian SF & Fantasy, Two, edited by Bill Congreve and Michelle Marquardt, is the sixteenth release from MirrorDance, Australia’s longest running independent publisher of SF, and is released on their mass market imprint, MirrorDance Books.
