For immediate release. Dec 2007

Local Chatswood based publisher, MirrorDanse Books, takes on the multinationals with the third volume in the award winning and critically acclaimed Year's Best Australian SF & Fantasy series.

“Year’s Best volumes are usually the territory of publishers such as Harper Collins, or St Martins Press in New York, but independent publishers are entering this niche market around the world,” says editor and publisher, Bill Congreve. “This year, internationally acclaimed authors such as Terry Dowling, Simon Brown, and Margo Lanagan have stories in the book.”

“There’s been an explosion in science fiction writing in Australia. More writers, more stories, a higher standard and greater international recognition than ever before. With the Year’s Best series we’re bringing the best of the small press – and the best of the stories published overseas – to a wider audience.” says Congreve.

The Year’s Best Australian SF & Fantasy, Third Annual Volume, edited by Bill Congreve and Michelle Marquardt, is the latest release from MirrorDanse Books, Australia’s oldest and most successful independent publisher of SF.
